

U.S. Geological Survey
2001 - 2002 Public Lecture Series

SeismoSleuthing: What Scientists Can Learn from Historic and Prehistoric Earthquakes

Susan Hough, USGS, Pasadena
November 13 - 8pm

The Los Angeles Basin:
What Is Going On Under There?

Gary Fuis, USGS, Menlo Park
January 22 - 8pm

The Saga of Volcanic Unrest
in Long Valley Caldera, Eastern California

David Hill, USGS, Menlo Park
March 5 - 8pm

Using GPS to Study Faults
and Earthquakes
in Southern California

Nancy King, USGS, Pasadena
May 7 - 8pm

All lectures are free and start at 8pm in Baxter Lecture Hall
on Caltech campus.
Plenty of free parking is available.

For more information see <http://pasadena.wr.usgs.gov/lectures/> or call 626-583-6801.

